NSW Public Sphere: Government 2.0

WELCOME | AGENDA | REGISTER | SPONSORS | LIVE WALL | HELP OUT

NSW Public Sphere looks like it will be a very interesting day. The agenda for Friday is now online: <http://newspennysphere.com/news/agenda>

Registration:
Registration will open at 7:30am, for a 9:30am start. We've tried to fit in as many speakers as possible, so if you're not coming on early for the special screening of Go Live please make sure you're here by 8:30am to register.

Where to go?
NSW Public Sphere is being held in the Parliament. Therefore, enter the Parliament from Macquarie Street and proceed through security. (Allow an extra 5 to 15 mins for security).

How do I get to the NSW Parliament?
The Parliament of NSW is located at the top of Macquarie Place on Macquarie Street. The nearest train stations are St James and Martin Place. For public transport, please refer to <http://www.rtt2009.com.au/>.

Please note, no parking will be available at the venue but there are a number of parking stations nearby.

Computer access:
Thanks to our sponsor MIC, wifi will be available at the venue. Please bring your laptop along on the day. The Twitter hashtag for the event is #newsphere.

Search:
Yes, coffee and lunch will be provided thanks to the generous support of our sponsors.

What should I do if I can't make it myself?
NSW Public Sphere is now full, so if you know you won't be able to make it, please let us know as soon as possible so we can let other people in. If you have colleagues who cannot attend, please let them know they're able to make the event through live and join in the conversation via our live blog and Twitter: <http://newspennysphere.com/news/structure>.

Welcome to the first #NewsSphere event.
